Agricultural Days

Entry forms and rearing information are on the school app e for those children intending to have a calf, lamb, or kid.

Whakatāne Kiwi Trust – Kiwi Walks

Room 1, 2, and 4 children will be participating in an education programme and a walk through the reserve in Whakatāne with Helen Inglis from the Whakatāne Kiwi Trust.

Tuesday 5 September – Room 4

Friday 8 September – Room 2

Friday 15 September – Room 1

A notice for parents asking for permission, supervision and transport will be on the school app.

Wellbeing Programme – Room 3

Suze Woods from St John's has been teaching a wellbeing programme called Whātuaia te Waiora (Weaving Wellbeing) to our Room 3 students this term. This programme is designed to teach students several tools to enhance their wellbeing, such as mindfulness, gratitude, breathing exercises, and techniques to identify their emotions and further develop their strengths and resilience which can be utilized in classroom and life. Suze is coming every Tuesday until the end of the term.

Aims Games

Good luck to Zandre at the Aims Games which starts in Tauranga this weekend.

Zandre is competing in 10 different swimming events.

Thank you to all of those children who attended movie night. From that evening we raised enough money to pay for Zandre's entry and give him some support towards the cost of participating.

Coast Care Visit

Ben from Coast Care came to assembly last week as a follow up visit from our dune planting a couple of weeks ago.

Ben talked to the children about why we plant the sand dunes each year, why we plant Spinifex and Pingoa plants, and why sand dunes are so important.
