Agricultural Days

Entries for calves and lambs have come pouring in. It looks like it will be an exciting Agricultural Day. Entry forms and information are on the school app.

Whakatāne Kiwi Trust - Kiwi Walks

Room 1, 2, and 4 children are participating in an education programme and a walk through the reserve in Whakatāne with Helen Inglis from the Whakatāne Kiwi Trust.

Friday 8 September - Room 2

Friday 15 September - Room 1

A notice for parents asking for permission, supervision and transport is on the school app.

The Room 4 field trip was postponed, and the children had their talk in the classroom. Their trip has been rescheduled to Tuesday 19 September due to the weather.

Farewell Mr Imlig

Mr Imlig is leaving next Tuesday and I will be teaching in Room 3 for the last few days of Term 3. Miss Bella Akroyd will be the teacher for Term 4.

International Student

Lenny is our Taiwanese student who is living with the Bloms while attending our school for ten weeks. Lenny is ten years old, is in Room 5, and speaks very good English. If any school family is doing anything in the weekends or during the September holidays that you might think would be interesting for Lenny, please contact Carolyn on 0226200646.

It would be great for Lenny to have as many experiences as possible during his time in New Zealand.
